SHORT FILM FESTIVAL

The second annual Callaghan Education Pathways Digital Media Festival was a great night and a huge success. The event showcased the exceptional talent and effort of the public schools in the Callaghan Cluster and was a triumph of creativity and storytelling.

Islington's P&C must be commended for their excellent fundraising effort for our school. Their henna tattooing and African hair braiding stall had punters queuing ten deep! Well done to all community members, students and staff who helped make the night such a success.

The films on display were excellent, ranging from the funny, through the worthy, to the frankly terrifying.

The short film festival was not a competition, however, if it were, critics agree that Islington Public School's entry Bounce, would certainly have won.

Bounce can be seen on the YouTube link below as well as our school website

Swim School was a great success.
Pavement Art was lots of fun.
